One Hundred Years of Solitude Vocabulary Journal

While you read this novel, you will be expected to keep a vocabulary journal, similar to what we did for our Sherlock Holmes unit.

To work on your journal, do the following:

- identify difficult words in the passage that you could not previously define
- write the sentence in which they are found, and give the page number
- provide the part of speech
- provide the definition

***BY THE TIME WE FINISH THE NOVEL, YOU MUST HAVE AT LEAST 50 COMPLETE ENTRIES*****

Example Entry:

1. Petulance (noun): the state or quality of being petulant (I don't know this word either, so I will give its definition as well)

Petulant (adj): moved to or showing sudden, impatient irritation, especially some trifling annoyance

"A gentleman entered, with a pleasant, cultured face, high-nosed and pale, with something perhaps of petulance about the mouth, and with the steady, well-opened eye of a man whose pleasant lot it had ever been to command and be obeyed" (346).

Other forms: Petulant, Petulantly
